ABOUT US

Investment in Singapore comes from a vibrant, globally diversified market, expanding and strengthening value.

Our strategy is a mix where government has contributed the expertise of talent, technology and strong links to the region, supported by the robust laws of Singapore, we achieve this through a continuous investment value addition efforts to create more products and services to the region and its growth.

Moreover, we believe that Singapore has become a hub for the most of the world's leading companies, and they are not just a hub for the world's leading companies, but also a hub for the world's leading companies, and they are not just a hub for the world's leading companies, but also a hub for the world's leading companies.

Being a hub for the world's leading companies, we have not just a hub for the world's leading companies, but also a hub for the world's leading companies, and they are not just a hub for the world's leading companies, but also a hub for the world's leading companies.

We need a partner who can help us to create more products and services, and they are not just a hub for the world's leading companies, but also a hub for the world's leading companies.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Transil represents more than a food product. It represents a connection between people, food, and tradition.

We are committed to providing the highest quality products, consistently, responsibly, and without compromise. These principles guide every business we enter and represent the foundation of our food products and people.

By combining generations of traditional knowledge with modern technology and processes, Transil is a food product that is a testament to the importance of food, people, and innovation in the agricultural industry.

FROM TRANSYLVANIA TO THE WORLD

Our mission is to share the unique taste of Transylvania with the world's markets and offer a quality experience without any compromise, and without delay.

It takes a lifetime to share the unique taste of Transil, from the production of the food to the packaging, and the quality of the product. It takes a lifetime to share the unique taste of Transil, from the production of the food to the packaging, and the quality of the product.
